

Lady Lions Will Honor President

Plans to honor the outgoing president, Mrs. Clarence F. Clark, were made at the April business meeting of the Torrance Lioness Club, held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Redisch, 3964 Via Val Monte, Palos Verdes.

The affair will be a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. John Ritchie, 28930 Alvaraz Drive.

Chairmen of the dinner are Mrs. Ritchie and Mrs. Abe Robinson.

Installation of new officers is planned for May 11 at the Looco restaurant. On the committee in charge of the installation are Mmes. Milton Isbell, chairman; William King, Fred Boren, Clarence Clark, Walter Keberlein and Pete Radisch.

Rebekahs To Honor Official

Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, April 10, at the Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo for a business meeting with Juanita Stoneham in charge.

At 8 p.m. the lodge will honor Mrs. Maud Milburn, district deputy president, with a reception which will also celebrate the 144th birthday of IOOF.

Olive Veatch, chairman, has arranged a program. All members are requested to be present.

On April 3 at 6:30 p.m., Maud Milburn, district president, entertained her staff at a dinner at the temple.

MR. MRS. HERBERT BLEAKLEY
... Honored by Family

Herbert Bleakleys Note 50th Anniversary Today

A family dinner party today will celebrate the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bleakley, 23701 S. Western Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Bleakley have lived in this area for the past nine years. Mr. Bleakley, who retired five years ago, was a tool and die maker.

The couple, she is the former Flossie Vanderpool, were married April 7, 1913, in Pontiac, Mich.

They are the parents of three sons, Stanley of San Pedro; Walter of Torrance; and Howard of Long Beach; and a daughter, Mrs. Anna Spicer of Birmingham, Mich. Two other daughters are deceased.

Making their retirement days bright are the eight children to whom they are "grandpa and grandma."

To Palm Springs

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thuss will leave next Saturday morning to spend the Easter weekend in Palm Springs.

Alumnae To Stage Egg Hunt

South Bay Delta Gamma Alumnae will entertain their children at an Easter party on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lawrence McNeil, 6209 Picardie Rd., Miraleste. The traditional Easter egg hunt will be held.

A luncheon of hot dogs and punch will follow.

Assisting Mrs. McNeil will be Mrs. A. R. Hummel and Mrs. Craig Ruth.

On April 25, alumnae will meet at the Nursery School for the Visually Handicapped Children to stuff envelopes. Later that day, the group will have lunch and view the Versailles treasures displayed at the Los Angeles County Museum.

For further information, Mrs. Murray Helm may be contacted.

Maternity Classes to Begin Here

Maternity classes for mothers-to-be will start Thursday, April 11, at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 W. Carson St., Torrance, announced Dr. E. W. Kendrick, district health officer. The classes begin at 1 p.m.

According to Miss Roberta Ellis, public health nurse-instructor, hygiene of pregnancy, labor and delivery, child care, formula preparation and layettes will be some of the subjects discussed at the prenatal class.

The film "Normal Birth," an account of an actual delivery, will be shown during the session.

These prenatal classes are an educational service of the Los Angeles County Health Department for the patients of private physicians. In no way do the classes take the place of early and adequate maternity care.

Student Officers

Student body officers for the 1963-64 academic term at Marymount College will be Joanne Deer, president; Sue Yerby, vice president; Patricia Cain, secretary; and Paula Di Trullio, treasurer.

Calendar for April Slated By Council

At a meeting of the St. Philomena Women's Council, Mrs. Mike Marincevich, president, announced the following calendar for the month of April:

Women's Communion Sunday, April 7, at 8 a.m. mass; social evening April 18 at 8 p.m. in the school hall; baked good sale, April 21, after all masses; Council meeting April 22 at 8 p.m. in the school hall; "Luncheon is Served" April 23 in school hall at 1 p.m.; social evening, April 25 at 8 o'clock; coffee and doughnuts to be served after all masses every Sunday except Easter.

The altar will be cared for by St. Anthony's guild, Mmes. Al Meyers and John Pieniazek in charge.

St. Jude's Guild, Mmes. Amanda Brunetti and James La Costa, chairmen, will work the baked goods and coffee sales.

St. Elizabeth and St. Mark guilds will be hostesses for the social meetings, Mmes. Charles Bent and George Elftman, chairmen.

The "Luncheon is Served" on April 23 is open to the public. Mrs. Marincevich stated that business people will be served promptly.

Refreshments for the business meeting were served by St. Catherine's Guild.

Mrs. McVey, Delegate to Conference

Mrs. Kenneth McVey, 16704 Falda, has been chosen by the Torrance City Council to represent Torrance at the Western Regional Conference of Civic Committees to be held at the Biltmore in Los Angeles, April 7 to 9.

Main project at this meeting is the "People to People" program inaugurated during the Eisenhower administration. The feature of "sister cities" will be under discussion. Mrs. McVey was a charter member of the sister city committee for Torrance when Konya, Turkey was chosen. Since the revolution there, the program has been at a standstill.

Among the noted speakers to appear on the program are Lessipie Morrison, from the State Department, and ambassador-at-large on the "People to People" program; Snowden Chambers of the United States Information Agency, Washington, D. C.; and Mark Bortman, chairman of the Civic Committee, Boston, Mass.

Corps Assists At Vet Carnival

The annual carnival for the veterans at Sawtelle will be held May 1 and 2 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. both days. Maj. Mabel E. Patton states that the Communications Corps of the United States has prepared colorful bean bags and targets for their traditional "bean bag" booth at the carnival. The Corps will also supply prizes.

Corps members in uniform supervise this booth. Many other organizations participate in the yearly carnival.

Capt. Jane Ware of Wilmington is assisting with the project. She may be called for further information.

To Convention

Little Company of Mary Hospital Medical Library will be represented by Mrs. Lyle Peters of Hollywood Riviera, auxiliary medical librarian, at the 39th Annual Convention of the Catholic Library Assn. The convention will be held at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, April 16-19.

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Lee Polick

WOOD
Walt Disney's movie "Pollyanna" will be shown by the Howard Wood PTA in the school cafeteria at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, April 16, with hot dogs, popcorn and punch served from 12 noon, all for small donations.

CARR

"Americans Abroad" was the theme of the March meeting of Evelyn Carr PTA. Mrs. Robert Brigham of the American Field Service explained the student exchange program. Sue Smith, Torrance High student who spent last summer in Spain, and Richard Parker from North High who visited Greece, showed slides and answered questions about their stays.

Elected as officers for 1963-president; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans, vice presidents; Mrs. Nels Weberg, third vice president; Mrs. Ken Durian, recording secretary; Mrs. Roy Cope, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jack Till, treasurer; Mrs. Gerald Cunerty, historian; and Carl Edwards, auditor.

Facts about the school bond election were presented by a panel consisting of Quentin Cunningham, Jim Morris and William Leahy.

ARLINGTON
Mrs. Meryl Agee was ratified as Dental Health chairman at the April meeting of the executive board of Arlington PTA. A motion was passed to recommend to the association that president-elect, Mrs. Kenneth Lemke, be the delegate to the State Convention in May.

Committees were appointed to take charge of the Kindergarten Round Up, April 25 and 29, and May 2, and to make arrangements for the May board pot luck meeting.

The Ways and Means and the Program committees were asked to give an evaluation report at the May board meeting. The April PTA meeting held Thursday, April 4, was planned especially for fathers.

EDISON
Edison PTA held its regular association meeting March 13 in the school cafeteria. "Read, Mark, Learn and Inwardly Digest" was the theme for the evening. Accordingly a film, "Road to Knowledge" was shown telling of the growth of El Camino College. Following the film, Mrs. Lee Steffy, business teacher from El Camino, spoke.

The following were elected to district convention as delegates: Mmes. Robert Brigham, Burt Richardson, William Cassidy, Maury Bruner, Gabriel Lensing, John Watkins, John Bauer, Raymond Huggard, Stanley Saunders.

The theme for the association meeting, April 17, to be held in the school cafeteria, will be "Apple of Our Eye." The seventh and eighth grade girls' homemaking class will present fashions they have made. Boys will have an exhibit on display of their workmanship in shop classes. The school orchestra will play.

At Convention
Miss Carol Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elles Cook, 1625 Fern Ave., is in San Diego this weekend attending the California Home Economic convention in session at the Coronado Hotel from Friday through Monday.

Miss Cook, a senior at Mt. St. Mary's College, was chosen as a delegate to represent her college at the convention.
